About Binary Tree

At Binary Tree, we power enterprise transformations. Our award-winning software and services help Enterprise businesses modernize their Microsoft email, directories and applications by moving and integrating them to the cloud. Binary Tree mitigates the risk of delays, downtime, and budget overruns for complex transformation projects for large organizations. We understand Enterprise migration requirements that go well beyond the needs of small companies. Since 1993, we've transformed more than 7,000 global clients and 40 million users, including 6 million to Office 365. Our business first approach helps plan, move and manage the transformation process from end-to-end. So, clients stay focused on their core business while our experts deliver a low-risk, successful IT transformation.

Binary Tree is a Microsoft Gold Partner and a globally preferred vendor for Office 365. Our headquarters are located outside of New York City with global offices in the United Kingdom, France, Germany, Sweden and Singapore. For more, visit us at www.binarytree.com.
